Managing pregnancy & preparing for a leave of absence

Use your Clorox medical coverage.

Once you are expecting a child, your medical coverage also supports your pregnancy journey. As you or your spouse/domestic partner have doctor's visits, lab work and the many other medical needs that come with being pregnant, your medical coverage through UHC, Surest or Kaiser is there to support you. Take time to review everything included – and not included – in your health benefits. Doing so will help you understand your hospital and birthing coverage, from prenatal care through delivery, so you have every detail accounted for when the time comes.

 To learn more about the benefits covered under your medical plan, as well as more information about your deductible, in-network providers, and other plan design details, visit:

- cloroxbenefitsinfo.com
- The HSA (Partnership in Health) plan (UHC)
 - myuhc.com
 - 877-468-1028
- The PPO (Surest) plan

 - 866-683-6440
- The Kaiser plan
 - kp.org
 - 800-464-4000

BREAST PUMP COVERAGE

UHC, Surest and Kaiser will cover one retail-grade breast pump per pregnancy and the necessary supplies to operate it.

Maternity Support Program for UHC Members

If you or your spouse/domestic partner are pregnant and enrolled in The HSA (Partnership in Health) plan administered by UHC, use the Optum Maternity Support Program to access valuable educational information, advice and comprehensive case management – including access to a nurse for questions or concerns.

While you must enroll in the program to have access, participation is completely voluntary and without extra charge.

We encourage you to enroll within the first trimester of pregnancy, though you can join any time up to your 34th week.

To enroll, call the number on your ID card.

When you participate, you'll earn 2,550 points toward Rewards Cash!

Managing pregnancy & preparing for a leave of absence

Share the good news!

Choosing the best time to share the good news with your teammates is up to you. While we respect your privacy, telling your manager early on helps to plan ahead and gives you added support during this special time. Your manager can help you:

- Adjust deliverables and workload based on upcoming leave
- Work through accommodations in the workplace or for your schedule (making time for appointments, etc.)
- Celebrate the good news and help you feel supported

In addition to connecting with your manager, please contact MetLife if you'd like to request an accommodation.

IF YOUR LEAVE IS SUDDEN

As you plan for the birth or adoption of your child, we know things don't always go as planned. It's a good idea to give a loved one your manager's contact information, in case they need to contact your manager on your behalf. Your loved ones can also email people@clorox.com for any questions about your leave.

Managing pregnancy & preparing for a leave of absence

Review your benefits and consider where you need to make changes.

Equally important to your own medical coverage is understanding how you can cover your new child once they're born or adopted. You have 60 days to make changes, and you'll want to consider:

- Medical, Dental and Vision Coverage:

Will you add your new child as a dependent to any or all of your health care benefits? Visit mycloroxhealthcarerates.com to check the cost of coverage.

- Supplemental Life and Accidental Death & Dismemberment (AD&D) Insurance:

Will you change your beneficiary designations or enroll in Spouse or Child Life or AD&D Insurance?*

- Health Savings Accounts (HSAs), Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs) and 401(k) Retirement Plans:

Will you change your contribution amounts and beneficiary designations or open a Dependent Care FSA to cover childcare costs when you return to work?

- Other Benefits: Does it make sense to add or change other benefits to support your growing family, like Supplemental Health Benefits?

 If you have any questions about your benefits as you review them, we're here to help. Visit cloroxbenefits.com or contact the Health & Welfare Service Center at 833-550-5600 (Monday–Friday, 6am–5pm PT).

* If you'd like to elect Life Insurance, a Statement of Health may be required.

WHAT IS A QUALIFYING LIFE EVENT (QLE)?

A QLE is an event that occurs during the calendar year in which you can make changes to or enroll in certain benefits outside the annual enrollment period.

Having or adopting a baby is considered a QLE. Here at Clorox, you have 60 days from your child's birth or adoption date to make changes or enroll in certain benefits.

Managing pregnancy & preparing for a leave of absence

Initiate your Leave of Absence.

Contact MetLife to initiate your leave. You can do so by:

- Phone: Call the intake team at 855-320-8528
- Online: mybenefits.metlife.com (please reference the MetLife Registration Guide when you log in for the first time)

Be sure to have your treating doctor's name and contact information (including fax number) ready.

It's also a good idea to keep your spouse or family member involved in the leave planning process, so they know where to go and what to do if you need support and are unable to manage it on your own.

Once you initiate your leave, you will be assigned a MetLife claim number, which you should include on all documentation. Additionally, a MetLife claim specialist will call you three days before the start of your leave to confirm details. If you need to take an unplanned leave of absence immediately, the claims specialist will call you within two days of when you initiate your claim.

IF YOU AREN'T THE BIRTHING PARENT:

Once you contact MetLife to initiate your leave, you can skip ahead to the Having & Bonding With Your Child section of this Guide for your next steps.

Do you live in a state with paid leave?

If so, you'll want to connect with your state leave program in order to apply and receive full benefits if eligible. When you contact MetLife, your claims specialist will provide the steps you should take to file a claim. You can also visit the Getting Paid While on Leave section of this Guide for links to states' paid leave information.

Managing pregnancy & preparing for a leave of absence

Complete your paperwork.

Be sure to complete and return your medical paperwork as soon as possible, as it is critical to reviewing and approving your time off and pay (if applicable). If MetLife does not receive documentation, your time off may not be approved and can result in attendance infractions. Applicable forms will be mailed to you, and you can also access them on mybenefits.metlife.com.

- Medical Authorization form:

This authorizes MetLife to communicate directly with your doctor. Please complete and return it to MetLife.

- Attending Physician's Statement (APS) form:

Give the form to your doctor's office and ask them to complete it. Then, return it to MetLife either through your online portal or by fax (877-840-9166). It is your responsibility to ensure this form is completed and sent to MetLife within 15 days of your leave start date. See the Having & Bonding With Your Child section for more information.

Managing pregnancy & preparing for a leave of absence

Prepare for being out of the office.

- Remind your manager and/or local HR representative of your expected start and return dates of your leave of absence, and be sure they update your status in Workday.
- Enter your personal email address in Workday, so you can be contacted while on your leave.
- Turn on your out-of-office message on your email, as you will not be able to access it while on leave.
- Make note of any usernames and passwords to ensure you have access outside the network (you will not have single sign-on access once you begin your leave).
- Submit a People& ticket through people@clorox.com or inform your local HR representative if you would like to use time off to maintain your pay during the unpaid 7-day waiting period, such as:
 - Health & Mental Well-being time
 - Vacation time
 - Flex time (applicable to production teammates only)
 - FTO (available to exempt teammates only)

days prior to your expected
leave date

IMPORTANT NOTE FOR TEAMMATES WITH INTERNATIONAL MANAGERS

Your manager will not receive notifications from MetLife, so be sure you share your leave details with your manager.

Note: Your network, badge access, and email access will be deactivated on the first day of your leave.

Enrolled in Hospital Indemnity insurance?

If you've elected Hospital Indemnity coverage through Securian and will be delivering a child, you are eligible to receive a payout based on your hospital stay.

Be sure to review the steps you must take to file your claim with Securian and receive payment. If you have any questions about this process, contact Securian at 855-750-1906 or securian.com/clorox-insurance. Securian also provides BenefitBump, a concierge service for growing families to help navigate parental leave benefits and return-to-work logistics!

Having & bonding with your child

Notify MetLife of your new addition.

Welcoming a baby into the world is an experience like no other, and we want to make sure you can fully enjoy your leave. Contact your MetLife claims specialist within 5 days of your child's birth or adoption to inform them of their delivery/adoption date and type of delivery, if applicable.

If you are taking Clorox Paid Parental Leave (PPL) or transitioning from Maternity Leave/Short-Term Disability (STD) to PPL, you'll need to provide MetLife with proof of birth to support your time off.

 Contact MetLife by calling 855-320-8528 or visit mybenefits.metlife.com. Please refer to the MetLife MyBenefits Registration Guide HERE for instructions.

Having & bonding with your child

Ensure your doctor completes necessary medical documentation for the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA).

For a medical leave, your doctor must complete the Attending Physician's Statement (APS) form within 15 days of your leave start date and return it to MetLife. It is your responsibility to ensure this form is completed and sent to MetLife, and failure to do so may result in your time off not being approved and attendance infractions.

For MetLife to properly process your APS, please be sure your MetLife claim number is on each page of the form.

Note: Kaiser plan (California only) members may require additional steps in collecting paperwork from the Kaiser records departments to submit directly to MetLife. Kaiser may utilize their own version of the APS that MetLife will accept.

Within
days of your child's birth/adoption

Having & bonding with your child

- Birth certificate, hospital discharge paperwork, or adoption paperwork that shows:
 - Name of employee, spouse or domestic partner
 - Name of child
 - Child's date of birth

- Legal guardianship court order
- Divorce decree, custody agreement, or Qualified Medical Child Support Order (QMCSO)

Whichever documents you submit, please make sure they have child's name, child's date of birth, and parents' names.

Please see the next page for instructions on how to submit this information.

QUICK TIP: REMEMBER TO UPDATE YOUR TAX WITHHOLDING STATUS

Once you return to work, it's also a good idea to review your tax withholding status, if necessary. This can be done online at The Well > UKG or by clicking here.

Having & bonding with your child

Review and update your beneficiaries.

You may want to consider making your child a beneficiary on your Clorox Basic Life insurance, 401(k) and Supplemental Life and AD&D insurance (if applicable).

To review and update your beneficiary(ies), visit:

- The Well > U.S. Total Rewards > Quick Links > Health & Welfare Service Center for Life and AD&D insurance beneficiaries through MetLife

Click here to learn more about what you should consider when choosing your beneficiary(ies). It is always a good idea to consult with a tax or legal professional before you designate your beneficiary(ies).

Having & bonding with your child

Receive your pay and benefits while on leave.

If you're eligible and approved for Short-Term Disability, you'll receive your payments through direct deposit, with the appropriate deductions taken out. (Please see the Your Benefits & Total Rewards section to learn more about which deductions will continue while you're on leave.)

Be sure to keep track of the payments you receive, and if you have any questions about the amounts, contact MetLife for support.

 For details about your wages while on leave, review the Getting Paid While on Leave section of this guide.

Know how to extend your leave.

If you need to extend your leave of absence, contact your MetLife claims specialist to update your leave dates. If your extension is due to a medical reason, you'll need to submit a new APS form to support your additional time off and pay while away from work.

Be sure to also communicate your extension to your manager and/or local HR representative.

If you need to request any special accommodations to help you return to work, contact MetLife to initiate an accommodation request. The MetLife team will review your request and provide a summary to the Clorox HR team, who will then work with your manager to determine how best to accommodate your needs.

Getting Paid While on Leave

If you are the birth parent, you may be eligible for disability benefits. In order to apply and receive these benefits, you must ensure all paperwork related to the claim is submitted to MetLife.

Standard Waiting Period

The first 7 days of your maternity or parental leave are considered a standard waiting period. During this time, you won't receive any leave payments. You may choose to use alternative time off (flex, vacation, FTO, health and mental well-being time, etc.) to receive your pay during the waiting period. If you do not have any other paid time available – or use it up before the waiting period is over – the remainder of the waiting period will be unpaid. Submit a People& ticket by emailing people@clorox.com or inform your local HR representative if you'd like to use paid time off during your waiting period.

If you are the birth parent, the waiting period is waived if you are hospitalized on day one or during the waiting period; payments will begin as soon as you are hospitalized.

Short-Term Disability (STD)

If you are the birth parent, you may be able to start your leave of absence and STD 2 weeks prior to your estimated delivery date (4 weeks if you live in California). STD payments are calculated based on your earnings before your leave of absence begins and do not include overtime, bonuses or any other forms of compensation. All payments are calculated based on calendar days (not business days), starting on the first day of your leave and continuing until the first day back at work.

Please see the following pages for payment information based on the length of your leave and your state of residence.

Remember, your doctor must complete the Attending Physician's Statement \(APS\) form and return it to MetLife within 15 days to confirm your STD eligibility. Failure to do so may result in late or no STD payments.

PLEASE NOTE

Clorox will not process your STD pay until MetLife approves your claim. To view your pay statements, click here see this job aid.

Clorox Paid Paternal Leave (PPL)

Clorox's Paid Parental (PPL) benefit offers teammates paid time off for a maximum of 12 weeks for the:

- Birth of the teammate's child
- Placement of a child for adoption with the teammate
- Placement of a foster child with the teammate

Teammates can take PPL all at once or intermittently, in increments of at least 2 weeks. If you're approved for PPL, you'll receive 100% of your pay for the first 4 weeks, followed by 60% of your pay (or up to 70% of your pay for some teammates in California) for the remainder of your PPL.

PPL payments will be calculated based on your earnings before your leave of absence begins and does not include any overtime, bonuses or other forms of compensation. All payments are calculated based on calendar days, not business days, starting on the first day of your leave and continue until the first day back at work.
